

Music Detective

Name: _____

Pretend you are a music detective hired to answer the following questions. Read the questions below carefully. Search through your March/April 2008 Student magazine to find the answers.

1. What is the name of the band on the front cover? _____
2. On the front cover, you'll find a poster advertising a band concert. What time is the band concert? _____
3. Name the two musicians playing guitar on page 3. _____

4. What country are The Beatles from? _____
5. What years are the Golden Decade of Rock and Roll? _____
6. What year did Elvis Presley appear on the Ed Sullivan Show? _____
7. Who read the Leonard Bernstein chapter found on page 8? _____

8. Find the last note you sing in "A Champion for Peace" on page 9. What is the dynamic level of that note? _____
9. How many woodblocks are there on page 10? _____
10. How many whole notes do you find in the music for "It's a Musical World" on page 12-13? _____
11. What country is the birthplace of the Samba? _____
12. What famous musical did Leonard Bernstein compose? _____

(Answers found on page 28 of Teacher magazine.)

Copyright © 2008 by HAL LEONARD CORPORATION
International Copyright Secured All Rights Reserved

The original subscriber to Music Express magazine has permission to reproduce this page for educational use only. Any other use is strictly prohibited.